I certainly love the characters this way for who they are, rather than how they look.

Fukushuu no Susume ~Gyakuten no Catharsis~

This is later confirmed in the first chapter of Twin Spica. Tokai High School and Junior High School. The audience, moved by this, clapped in time with the music, and eventually the microphones were returned to their original positions.

The moment when we still dream high and try to achieve it, even if it seems impossible. And through this groundbreaking program, these young teachers are able to impact society in a new way, to nurture young individuals and develop themselves into new leaders. As its title - Encouragement of Climb- say, this story is about a little kid Aoi who build up her courage in trying something new with the help of her friends.

The Heritage of Resentment and Shame in Postwar Japan

The shared resentment toward past injustice among resident Koreans and Japanese citizens was expressed in the opening announcement of the first Conference on Forced Laborers: For forty-five years since the end of the war and since the liberation for Koreans, the Japanese government and we Japanese have continuously covered up and forgotten the history of aggression. I was so happy to hear this.
