The Soviet forces were under the command of Marshal Ivan S. This sort of formulation corresponds to diplomatic custom and in no way differs from the recently signed treaties on the European Defense Community and the General Treaty. This includes the kasernes, headquarters, administrative and support buildings, supply points, billets, transient hotels, snack bars, American Red Cross and special service clubs, Rail Transport Offices and the many family quarters used by military and civilian personnel of the US Army and Air Force and their families stationed in the Greater Vienna area.
