Handbook

Player Referees and Officials Referees who play or are club officials must understand that they are scrutinized by other teams, club officials and spectators. You should have the Team sheets in your possession, if time permits put them in your bag, alternatively, place them in a protective re sealable lunch bag and give them to your assistant referee on the technical side of the ground especially in wet weather.

Handbook

The Referee shall note the absence of officials and return of fees in the Game Report and a copy of the Game Report shall be given to the SRC. The referee and assistant referee should take no notice of a player who asks to be replaced. If you wish to be considered for promotion to a higher senior level, an application must be made to the Training Coordinator.
