Finally the Secretary of State will consider the recommendation from CATE and either approve or not approve an institution's accreditation and any courses which are outside the scope of the development plan.

The integration of information and communication technology into current ELT coursebooks: a critical analysis

CATE will need to consider individually proposals for new courses which are outside the scope of an institution's accredited development plan and new courses introduced before an institution's plan has been scrutinised. Since 1983, all newly qualified teachers trained in England and Wales have had graduate status. HEIs should make explicit in their development plans and to schools their criteria for the formation of partnerships, which should include the use of indicators as evidence of quality of teaching and learning.

DFE Circular 9/92 (1992)

It will be for HEIs to consider whether they wish to continue to utilise in other ways the experience which members of local committees have gained.

The integration of information and communication technology into current ELT coursebooks: a critical analysis

In order to teach in a maintained school, teachers are normally required to have qualified teacher status QTS.

If the Council is satisfied with the development plan, the evidence in the report of OHMCI and the institution's response it will recommend to the Secretary of State accreditation of the institution. I have used bullet points instead of the hyphens in the original. The DfEE then provides the Teacher Training Agency TTA with ITT intake targets to use as the basis for its funding and allocation decisions.

self

HEIs and their partner schools have joint responsibility for course planning and management and for the selection, training and assessment of students, although the balance of responsibility varies. Contents John Sharp Philip Stephenson These materials have been specifically produced to support trainee teachers developing their own science subject knowledge and understanding. A detailed description of the new procedure is set out at Annex B.
