Mary's Part in Our Redemption George D. Smith 1938 NY Burns Oates & Washbourne

Now for many that statement might come across as arrogant.

Mary is Co

Evangelicals know the Old Testament examples of Moses and Abraham interceding on behalf of others to God, and all Christians agree about the need to mediate in prayer for others. What if the major problems we have are completely out of our hands, whether those problems were of our own doing, caused by someone else, or something else, such as an economic collapse or natural disaster? This is where the convicting power of the Holy Spirit is necessary for redemption. Then suddenly in the middle of a story, they were startled back to reality by the shrieking whistle of a distant train.

Mary, Coredemptrix — Really?!

The above paper first appeared in Mark I. I am on very friendly terms with. But this was his son, his only son, his pride and joy.

The Holy Spirit in redemption, how the Spirit redeems us

She alone was never under the power of Satan. For example the great Church Father Origen wrote over 6,000 books of which only a few copies now survive.

The Holy Spirit in redemption, how the Spirit redeems us

No creature could ever be counted along with the Incarnate Word and Redeemer; but just as the priesthood of Christ is shared in various ways both by his ministers and the faithful, and as the one goodness of God is radiated in different ways among his creatures, so also the unique mediation of the Redeemer does not exclude but rather gives rise to a manifold cooperation which is but a sharing in this one source.
