Institutional Governance Systems And Variations In National Competitive Advantage: An Integrative Framework

Scenarios: The Art of Strategic Conversation.

Addressing Forced Labor in the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region: Toward a Shared Agenda

The findings suggest that the fashion industry is lagging behind other industries in terms of future orientation and therefore long-term strategy development, even though the challenges in the business environment are not perceived as less relevant. The XPCC has long used prison labor at a large scale, with mostly Han Chinese inmates sent from other parts of China. Six of these questionnaires could be allocated to the fashion industry, Figures 2 and 3 describe the industries and countries represented in our sample.

Alternatives to lean production: Work organization in the Swedish auto industry. Journal of Management Studies, 33: 1—24. Each immigrant group possesses its own strategies for survival and success.

Sociotechnical redesign : the case of cellular manufacturing at Bendix Mintex / John Mathews, Andrew...

Business groups in emerging economies: A resource-based view. Both consumers and regulators increasingly demand traceability, so the systems developed to respond to XUAR-linked forced labor would have much broader applications and could provide an ongoing advantage for brands adopting them. Traceability is nevertheless likely to be a growing consumer demand.

GovERP

It is highly seasonal work, which makes it somewhat more likely to rely on migrant or prison labor.

The Resource

In the poverty alleviation program, local officials are under pressure to deliver certain quotas of people out of poverty, which can be accomplished on paper by transferring them from their traditional work to other jobs. Economic backwardness in historical perspective.
