However there is a storied history to our favourite Basset breed. The Basset Artésien Normand goes to England In the 1870s, the English first showed an interest in the Basset Artésien Normand when Lord On slow and Mr.

Basset Hound Origin Story

I have never known of one to attempt to bite, except in the case of puppies when being punished for some misdemeanor or other, and then they did it from fright more than from ill nature. Despite their short legs and low stature, bassets love to run. In 1886, Cruft was approached to run a dog show for terriers in London by the Duchess of Newcastle and so on 10 March his show opened at the Royal Aquarium in Westminster, London.
