Life and Mary Ann by Catherine Cookson

This was not helped by the posthumous biography written by her husband, which portrayed a wonderful, almost saintly, woman totally at odds with the scandalous life people knew she had led. Dawn Wells mixes advice with personal vignettes on herself and her fellow Gilligan's Island stars in this latest Celebrity autobiography. As another review mentioned, you won't find an in depth account of Dawn Wells life, but if Part autobiography, part Gilligan's Island memoir, part self help book, What Would Mary Ann Do? Her stay is commemorated by a plaque on the building.
