Lucrezio a Grosseto (GR)

All of them were made in memory of the wedding of Lucrezia and Alfonso II. In so doing it manages to harvest a collection of opinions proceeding from different humanistic disciplines which offer a much more closely defined picture of the place occupied by the work and figure of Lucretius than has hitherto been provided by a swarm of articles more concerned with commenting on dispersed echoes. Lucrezia was named in honor of her great-grandmother mother of Maria Salviati.

Epicureismo e pederastia Il «Lucrezio» e l'«Anacreonte» di Alessandro Marchetti secondo il Sant'Uffizio

The bibliography, though extensive and up to date, is not organized in a specific section, and fails to take into account the above-mentioned thesis by C.
