Friday Reflection: Teilhard de Chardin, The Mystic

The significant lead of two outsiders, Donald Trump on the Republican side and Democrat Bernie Sanders, seems to signal prima facie that the public is tired of established politics and wants new blood. And all about it the ether had become alive, vibrating palpably beneath the crude substance of rock and plants as in summer the landscape quivers behind the overheated soil in the foreground. As a result, we are evolving at an exponential rate.

Friday Reflection: Teilhard de Chardin, The Mystic

This point of convergence will reach perfection in the Parousia, the perfect realisation of the Kingdom of God, when Jesus the Christ returns to earth in all His glory, bringing forth the perfect unity of God and humankind, spirit and matter, sacred and secular, Creator and all that He created.

Chapter 3: The Spiritual Power of Matter

L'auteur le montre, non seulement à partir des oeuvres publiées mais en mettant également à profit les notes spirituelles, encore inédites, que Teilhard avait l'habitude de prendre, au fil des ans, pendant ses retraites annuelles.

The Evolutionary Spirituality of Teilhard de Chardin

The resulting world view, which is both revolutionary and evolutionary, has seven main characteristics: 1. However, we cannot gather ourselves on this new level of mind — what he called the noosphere — unless we have political structures and public policies that support this new phase of global life. Augustine, and hence ontologically inferior to virginity and celibacy.

The Evolutionary Spirituality of Teilhard de Chardin

Editor's note: This version clarifies that Teilhard de Chardin foresaw a connecting force like the Internet — he died in 1955 before it came into widespread use. From that moment on, the unimaginably primitive man, the bearer of this stunning insight, had to feel the vital ambition to conquer everything and surpass himself. Under the combined influences of science, history and social changes, a new awareness of both time and community has conquered and transformed our entire sphere of experience.

Politics, Teilhard, and the world's future

And he felt that henceforth nothing in the world would ever be able to alienate his heart from the greater reality which was now revealing itself to him, nothing at all: neither the intrusiveness and individualist separatism of human beings for these qualities in them he despised nor the heavens and the earth in their height and breadth and depth and power for it was precisely to these that he was now dedicating himself for ever. A great silence fell around him.

Politics, Teilhard, and the world's future

There are two separate realities. We saw recently the result of that awful teaching in Church run homes for unmarried mothers in the Irish Republic and the way their deceased babies were treated. Omega Christ is the Essential Unity holding all creation in all its dimensions and complexity together.

The Evolutionary Spirituality of Teilhard de Chardin

Teilhard de Chardin posited the view that the world as we know it has been, and still is, evolving and expanding onwards, outwards and upwards to Omega God, the cosmic Christ. A look at the interior life of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin in a series of articles. Yes, of this he was certain: even for his brothers in God, better men than he, he would inevitably speak henceforth in an incomprehensible tongue, he whom the Lord had drawn to follow the road of fire.
