Наиболее масштабный «поворот» произошел с применением гендерного подхода к античным текстам и поиском гендерной идентичности в античности. Eventually, while these republics would retain their cultural identity—their language, their cultural institutions—they would sacrifice economic and political sovereignty. Of the tamizdat authors, Solzhenitsyn was the most famous, publishing in the West in 1973.

After Stalin's death, and the subsequent renouncement of his policies during the , Pokrovsky's work regained some influence. Политическая обстановка в США политика маккартизма и антикоммунистическая истерия в обществе и в СССР борьба с низкопоклонством и новые веяния внешней политики послевоенного мира заставила историков-антиковедов обратиться к античному наследию с целью актуализации и обоснования возникшего противостояния двух систем. Existing Challenges Deepen In some cases, Covid-19 has not fundamentally changed issues facing our society, but has instead brought greater attention to them or increased their impact.

A new past, as well as new present, was imposed on the captive minds of the Soviet population, as was, of course, admitted when truth emerged in the late 1980s. It is only natural to compare the Japanese or the Ottoman empires with their European counterparts in view of their close interactions, but I would like to emphasize the importance of including China. © 2020 by the Center for Strategic and International Studies.

Alfred J. Rieber approaches Soviet history through Stalin and the nationality question

Moreover, our knowledge and experience are useful for analyzing events and phenomena in other regions of the post-Soviet space and beyond, not least because there have been various cases of conflicts, failed democratization, and international political crises in our region. I thank Paul Werth for his reference to this project.
