Catholics and Protestants

Evangelical is, first and always, one who declares the Gospel, the Evangel, the Good News of Jesus Christ. The American Bible League was formed in 1902 in the United States by a group of defenders of the Bible who also published a series of 12 pamphlets, collectively entitled The Fundamentals. A Protestant has a difficult time getting converts because of the social coercion.

The vast majority of them simply do not know the right answer to this, the most important of all questions, the very essence of Christianity.

Sermons about Protestant

Conservative, traditional Protestantism had never really disappeared. You see this especially in mass media.

What is a Protestant? Their Beliefs & Differences from Catholics

Catherine said there had been no need for a dispensation because her marriage to Arthur had not been and there had been no impediment to her marriage to Henry. Catherine of Aragon, painting by Michael Sittow, late 15th or early 16th century; in the Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna.

What is a Protestant? Their Beliefs & Differences from Catholics

Protestantism that began in England in the 15 th century and in Western Europe in the 16 th century was not merely about reform from undeniable abuses of faith and practice within the remnant of the medieval Church, that is, the Roman Catholic Church. A central concept of the Reformation had been and remains ecclesia reformata, semper reformanda the church reformed, always reforming.

The Protestant Ethic of Prosperity

But such open competition was unthinkable 400 years ago. The calendar was also governed by the church.

Sermons about Protestant

In his introduction to The Protestant Ethic Max Weber points out that greed and the desire for personal gain, as well as trading and other economic enterprises designed to make a profit, exist everywhere and have been true of people in all walks of life and in all cultures of the earth. Seniors today were raised with a Romanism that was a far cry from the compromising brand of today.
