Dyfodol i'r Iaith

An incessant tide of immigration sets in from the former extreme to the latter. Between the two World Wars I believed that the thing was not impossible, given time and a consistent policy followed for a generation or two.

What is Cymdeithas yr Iaith?

The first campaigns were for official status for the language, with a call for Welsh-language tax returns, schools, electoral forms, post office signs, birth certificates and so on. It is easy to predict that the scorn and sneers of the English gutter journalist would be a daily burden.

Yr Iaith

Revolutionary words, a revolutionary programme. That is fair evidence of the opinion of the great majority of clerics and gentry concerning Tudor policy. By presenting unique content side by side, in parallel, sequenced by level of proficiency , , , readers of all abilities can enjoy reading and ensure the language is accessible to all.

Welsh Language Society

De minimus non curat lex. Their only connecting link with the vast majority of their fellow-countrymen is the most untruthful national anthem in Europe.
