Adapting to a new Culture

Please tell us about it in the comments below. There is also a gap in research on effective approaches for successful transitions of mother-tongue educated children to secondary school in a dominant language. In 2008—2011, AIR staff conducted an examination of the policies and instructional and programmatic strategies that support the successful transition of advanced ELLs into advanced educational programming that prepares them for postsecondary education and the 21st century workplace.
