SAS Global Forum 2014 Proceedings

The QKB enables data management operations such as parsing, standardization, and fuzzy matching for contact information such as names, organizations, addresses, and phone numbers, or for product data attributes such as materials, colors, and dimensions.

SAS Global Forum 2015 Proceedings

In this paper, we provide context for why these features might appear in data sets produced from surveys, highlight some of the formulaic modifications they introduce, and outline the syntax needed to properly account for them.

Statistical Analyst Resume Samples

We look at how parallel processing data across multiple machines using MPCONNECT can replicate MapReduce's shared-nothing approach to data processing. SAS provides several facilities
