China may pose threat to UK as northern sea route clears, says navy chief

In just the past year, widespread protests against Chinese investments have erupted in Bangladesh, Kazakhstan, Kenya, and Sri Lanka. Visiting leaders have typically excused such public silence by insisting that they raise human rights with Chinese officials in private discussions.

Is 'Made in China 2025' a threat to the West?

We have previously that the United States should seek to the U. In many armed conflicts, such as in Syria and Yemen, warring parties blatantly disregard the international rules designed to spare civilians the hazards of war, from the ban on chemical weapons to the prohibition against bombing hospitals. In the short term, therefore, the United States and its allies must defend that system from economic, governance, and military threats that China poses, and impose serious costs on the CCP when it violates widely held international standards.

Teaching Notes

In 1945, the leaders of the Nationalist and Communist parties, Chiang Kai-shek and Mao Zedong, met for a series of talks on the formation of a post-war government.

Teaching Notes

Often working in tandem with Russia, China also has taken an increasingly regressive approach to any action on human rights in the Security Council, where it has veto power. If Taiwan can make it clear that its military and society are prepared for all-out resistance if China attacks, this makes the case for international assistance much clearer. But little if any evidence exists that this behind-the-scenes approach does any good.

The China Threat is Real

Ideally, in fact, a reciprocal action or even just the threat of one would bring China to the negotiating table, where a better outcome could be reached.

Teaching Notes

They are very active on college campuses, and not only involved in academic pursuits but are also involved in stirring up dissent and recruiting impressionable young minds.

Is 'Made in China 2025' a threat to the West?

Because it can no longer count on China to continue the process of reform and opening up, it should stop sacrificing its own economic and political security.
