Flowers for Drying

Cut all the flowers to a length of 10cm and fix together groups of the same flower with florist wire.

Dried Lavender, Dried Roses, Dried Flowers, Home Decor, Dried Decorations

Since we have a long mantel, I actually made two garlands, because it was easier to work with the delicate flowers that way. Each individual dried flower or grass should have air and sufficient space to show itself off.

Dried flower arrangements: 6 gorgeous ways with dried flowers

Air Drying Basics First things first, get yourself a proper space to air dry in. Simply bundle several stems together and tie at the base.

Dried Flowers: Where To Buy, Best Varieties And Arrangement Tips

This is where they will get hung upside down from. But, sadly, it seems like the time for preserving flowers and making arrangements has passed.

How to Make Dried Flower and Herbal Sachets

Hobines are very long, bendy and dry to a lovely sage green colour. Keep in mind that it takes at least 2 weeks of drying time for flowers to be ready for this project.

Dried Flowers

Leave for 7 to 10 days to dry. Air Drying The easiest and least expensive method of drying flowers is by air drying. After the leaves are removed, bundle the stems of about five flower heads together and use garden twine to bind them together.

Otherwise, the blue fades with time to almost a gray. You can dress them up as much or as little as you like.

How to Make Dried Flower and Herbal Sachets

There are flowers, like the aptly named strawflower Xerochrysum bracteatum, that seem to dry themselves, while others are just too succulent to dry fully. The latter do shrivel a bit, like raisins, but they keep their gorgeous colour.
