Biblio: A Review of Books

And if indeed that is the case, then is there any future for us Indians having such a corrupt party in nation, where we can successfully deal with Pakistan which sponsors terrorism? Only then can the talks move forward. Resumption of talks with Pakistan can possibly help India to secure the life of Kulbhushan Jadhav who has been sentenced to death by a Pakistani military court, Congress leader Mani Shankar Aiyar said on Wednesday. Also, people from Karachi who have visited Delhi and Bombay say they noticed no difference there except that auto rickshaws in India were not so noisy and a bit more comfortable.

Dialogue, not deadlock, advises Mani Shankar

In these five assembly seats, whether there are Congress candidates or any devious person whoever is brought by them, I want to win all the polling booths in these seats. Modi, on the other hand, is the supreme commander in India.

Mani Shankar Aiyar's latest Pakistan tryst lands him in a soup, and not for the first time

. Former Congress president Rahul Gandhi pulled him up for the comment, which was made during the 2017 Gujarat Assembly election campaign.

Congress leader Mani Shankar Aiyar reveals the reason behind his love for Pakistan

There is no other way to better the relations. Opposition parties have backed the government as it explores ways to counter the punishment and bring Jadhav back to India safely. Addressing a gathering with former foreign affairs minister at a session titled 'The Current State of - Relations', Aiyar said the prominent issue of nation building was integrating the community into rest of the country.

Mani Shankar Aiyar

This country's people have elected me in a democratic way, and you go to Pakistan and say that this man is coming in the way and remove him! Would you believe Pakistan or India in such matters? According to the Press Trust of India, the comments that the prime minister brought up on Friday were made in November 2015, during a panel discussion on Pakistani news channel Duniya TV. .

Now let the current government do their job. And in the Congress nobody can use bad language against the PM. An economics graduate from Delhi University and further on from Cambridge, he was in Indian Foreign service for 26 years before taking a plunge into politics, the last five of which were on deputation to the Prime Minister's Office under Rajiv Gandhi 1985-89.

Mani Shankar Aiyar's latest Pakistan tryst lands him in a soup, and not for the first time

Attacking the Congress over its work culture, Modi alleged that the party believes in - 'atkana' to stall 'latkana' to keep the issue hanging and 'bhatkana' to divert an issue. I want that the lotus must bloom BJP symbol in all the polling booths.
