Unfortunately, it does not seem that any of these responsibilities have been implemented and enforced at the domestic level; they have therefore had little impact.

Globalisation: concept, outcome, future—a continental view

On four occasions in the past and once in November this year, described below, the NPCSC issued interpretations of the Basic Law. In August, Wong and Law were sentenced to perform 80 and 120 hours of community service respectively, while Chow was given a suspended sentence of three weeks imprisonment.

Human rights

The early years of the United Nations were overshadowed by the division between the Western and Communist conceptions of human rights, although neither side called into question the concept of universality. There are several interrelated and emerging issues. However, the purpose of this article is not to discuss whether the exception is reviewable in specific contexts but to proffer a potential standard when the exception is, indeed, being evaluated by a reviewing body.
