A/RES/45/158

Consequently, the countries with law and without law, or being the member and being non-member of the Convention, have to encounter mutual conflicts. The and the were empowered to add, remove, and transfer drugs among the treaty's four schedules of controlled substances. Nowadays, as the fight against corruption was a high priority of the President, any programme carried out by a ministry must contain elements on corruption.

Future reports will develop further the examination of these categories of violations and also address the misuse of small arms by States and by armed groups in situations of armed conflict. Several countries currently have extremely high firearm homicide rates. Because of the devastating consequences of small arms violence, the international community must focus increased attention on the type, number and role of small arms used to violate human rights.

The meetings of the Committee shall normally be held at United Nations Headquarters. The appropriate response of States to widespread and systematic armed violence by individuals and groups must be guided in these situations by the principles of international law with regard to states of emergency. An alternative estimate of total global firearms is 594 million Gregory Fetter, 2001.
