Utah History Encyclopedia

Brigham Young helped keep it quiet, then blamed the Shoshone, then indirectly blamed the United States, asserting that tension between the Mormons and the U. Hurt, his authority already threatened, determined that he should attempt to remove natives from the charity of the LDS church, and of the U. But although many Mormons agreed that the formal divide was politically necessary, many remained sympathetic to their polygynous cousins.

Fur-lined moccasins were sometimes stuffed with sagebrush bark.

Butch Cassidy: A Biography

People leave you alone when you flash a notebook. I barely see the Salt Lake drivers careening past me, flying through their evening rush hour.

Native History: Bear River Massacre Devastates Northwestern Shoshone

Lee and his people refused to sell supplies to the party, who threatened that, once in California, they would raise a militia, return, and punish the Mormons. This photo, taken between 1830 and 1840, shows them standing near the Washakie Ward meetinghouse. Utah historians document several instances of slave trading between Mormon owners.

10 Images to Help Remember the Bear River Massacre

The Indians had a very strong natural fortification as you will perceive by the sketch within it is a deep ravine {with thick willows and vines so thick that it was difficult to see an Indian from the banks} running across a smooth flat about half a mile in width.

The Bear River Massacre: New Historical Evidence

The giant elephants, mammoths, and bison, and their predators crossed from Siberia to Alaska; then, to avoid the encroaching ice fields, traveled east and south.
