Greenland was colonized by them, and Iceland became the central point in their system of maritime operations. The fears of the Church as to the effect of the new doctrines were not ill-founded.

Invaders of Scotland by Anna Ritchie

Tis long since I bid lo the vanities of the world adieu. In one, for example, in the neighbourhood of Rutherglen, Lanarkshire, which measured 260 feet in circumference, a gallery or long chamber was discovered, constructed of unhewn stones, and containing, among other relics, two brass vessels, which from the description appear to have been Roman patellæ. The title was, however, revived in later days in favour of the Flemings of Cumbernauld.
