Opinions

The process of bringing forth a political voice for workers and the oppressed will not yield any quick and easy victories, given how long the two-party, winner-take-all mythology has prevailed in this country.

Opinions

Government officials are subject to the law just as others are. The 1984 Democratic platform, the most conservative in fifty years, was designed to attract business support.

Politics of the United States

The civil rights movement of the 1960s and the culture wars of the 1970s and 1980s not only and , it also shifted the focus of politics such that Washington became the arbiter of national values. The Centers for Disease Control, impressed with the teamwork between City, County, and community organizations in Seattle, awarded the Department of Public Health with one of the first federal grants for AIDS prevention projects. The fact that state legislatures were dominated by Democrats and Republicans provided these parties an opportunity to pass discriminatory laws against minor political parties, yet such laws did not start to arise until the that hit America after.

Hall of Fame

Class conflict was to be bypassed because U. The two parties in the United States are not membership organizations with programs reflecting the
