The Truth About XY: The Hazards and Benefits of Being Male

Goldberg has an intimate awareness of men and their various states of unrest and agitation. These events reflected a maturation in the American men's movement, for they indicated that concern for the character and content of the cultural education of men had become a central concern of many social groups by the 1990s. ההדפסה הראשונית מנתה רק 7,500 עותקים, אבל בסופה של דבר הפק הספר במפתחו לרוב-מכר קרוב ל-מיליון עותקים.

What Men Still Don't Know About Women, Relationships, and Love

Due to its popularity and the frequent media appearances of some of its prominent writers and philosophers especially Robert Bly and Sam Keen , it became identified in the public mind during the early 1990s as the standard image of how the men's movement thought and functioned. This book covers things like how men are not free to express all their emotions, how they cannot touch other men homophobia , and covers issues like impotence and how they cannot show fear, sadness, or tears.
