Through its patient reflection on specific biblical texts and themes, the book evokes a vivid awareness of the God of glory. For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake, he is the one who will save it. With this clear picture of glory etched in our minds, it is easier to visualize what Moses saw when the glory of the Lord passed by, or what Solomon saw when the glory of the Lord filled the temple.

What is this new creature? It was a decent book. But what we want to show is that the promise when it stands alone, is generally a reference to the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit why it has to be the indwelling Spirit rather than the immersion in the Spirit or the gifts is clear from the study entitled. Meeting Satan in the wilderness at the beginning of his ministry, Jesus picks up right where the first man failed.
