Study His life and learn how He lived a life of submission under the yoke of God! But there was one problem - all her reasons stood in direct contradiction with the clear command of her Leader not to eat that fruit. There is NO humility in hanging our heads and backing away from experiencing every one of God's promises.

Yet I oftentimes find that these ideas are bad for me spiritually, because I prioritise these ideas OVER my devotion to Jesus. Even if you didn't previously know what the word hyperbole meant, you now know what it is because this is exactly what Jesus used here! Well, even crazier than even that, is the idea that you can have an attitude of richness about anything in yourself, and still enter the kingdom of God. Growing up in India, cows and oxen were literally everywhere.
