- - NRS: CHAPTER 704

Petition for Relief From a Conviction or Sentence
By a Person In State Custody
(Petition Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 for a Writ of Habeas Corpus)

Instructions

1. To use this form, you must be a person who is currently serving a sentence under a judgment against you in a state court. You are asking for relief from the conviction or sentence. This form is your petition for relief.

2. You may also use this form to challenge a state judgment that imposed a sentence to be served in the future, but you must fill in the name of the state where the judgment was entered. If you want to challenge a state judgment that imposed a sentence to be served in the future, you should file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 in the federal court that entered the judgment.

3. Make sure the form is typed or neatly written.

4. You must tell the truth and sign the form. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be punished for perjury.

5. All the questions in this form are not meant to be law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit a brief or argument, you can submit them in a separate document.

6. You must pay a fee of $5. If the fee is paid, your petition will be filed. If you cannot pay the fee, you may ask to proceed in forma pauperis as a poor person. To do that, you must fill out the information in the space provided. You must also attach a certificate showing your financial situation where you are certified showing the amount of money that the institution is holding for you. If you are held in a state prison, you must attach a copy of your trust account statement.

7. In this petition, you may challenge the judgment entered by only one court. If you want to challenge a judgment entered by a different court either in the same state or in different states, you must file a separate petition.

8. When you have completed the form, send the original and two copies to the Clerk of the United States District Court at this address:

Clerk, United States District Court for _____ Address _____
City, State Zip Code

b. CAUTION: You must include in this petition all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you are challenging. And you must state the facts that support each ground. If you do not file this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

c. CAPITAL CASES: If you are under a sentence of death, you are entitled to the assistance of counsel and should request the appointment of counsel.
