Lord of Misrule

It is considered ill-mannered to fail to eat every crumb. In many cities, processions of citizens carry lamps through the streets.

Hector Hawton

It is a joyous celebration with a lot of laughter, dancing and singing in merry gatherings that even among the poorest can last until daybreak. Gorelik's father owned and operated a Manhattan newsstand, then sold it and bought a small lumberyard in Brooklyn. The plays focused on the force of God and his plans rather than the characters.
