Council Staff

The policy remained in draft and the Committee had a discretion whether or not to follow it or to depart from it. There were good reasons why the Committee was entitled to depart from it in this case and the Committee was, therefore, correctly advised that the proposed development was permitted by the policy. They brought this problem to the attention of the Council before planning permission was granted.

Council Staff

The Right to Say: The Development of Youth Councils Forums jstor. It proposes 100% affordable housing and is considered as an 'exception site' in accordance with policy H20 of the Draft Kerrier District Local Plan 2004.

Interview: New Conservative group leader

The two Councils should then at their joint expense provide a satisfactory ramp to the property; and c both Councils should review their liaison arrangements in respect of disabled facilities grants and related matters. However, it has always been of the view that that development should not exceed about 12 affordable housing units. Hartlepool Borough Council election, 1999 pedia.

OMBUDSMAN FINDINGS OF MALADMINISTRATION A POLITE WAY TO DE

The Ombudsman criticised the arrangements the Council had put in place to investigate breaches of planning control. The Council wanted the developer to reduce mounding on the site and provide a mix of tree sizes and types.
