Suspend disbelief, ignore logic, switch off common sense and just enjoy. I chose the most commonly used titles.

Brothers Grimm Fairy Tales [Complete List]

They particularly needed this dispensation because their social standing at the time was not high enough to have normal admittance. However, are you familiar with the gruesome ending? A close friend of theirs, , was also a talented writer. They collected and published over 200 folktales and fairy tales from various oral and written sources.

Then again it was written in a different time and people lived in a different atmosphere.

13 Twisted Fairy Tales By The Brothers Grimm

Sadly don't think they would be considered suitable reading for todays children, who seem to be protected from reality and all things scary. A boy warms himself from the burning bodies of hanged men! His servant rescues him, and they tell the king everything. Didn't know how lucky I was as a child to own this book bcos reading those tales again now I can recognise the values they impressed on me all those years ago and I'm reminded of how much the world has changed.
