It is imperative to cultivate the ability to listen to criticism. The Japanese Constitution places considerable emphasis on the citizen's duties but they are not mentioned in detail nor are they many in number. He has a well-equipped and well-furnished mind — in contrast to the overwhelming majority of our politicians, of whom it may be said that their minds are some of the under-developed regions of the states they represent.

Write short notes on the following: a AryaSamaj b BrahmoSamaj c Prarthana Samaj Ana. Will a pay clinic patient also be entitled to a free bed or preferential appointment for laboratory investigations? A policeman- turned-politician, Mr Chamling is the first Chief Minister from the drought-prone South district. The fact that a citizen can resent against a curfew order is an illusory safeguard because the representation has to be made to the very Magistrate who ordered the curfew in the first place.
