Media, military and politics : a study on Bangladesh / Charulata Singh

The United States and Bangladesh also signed a bilateral treaty for the avoidance of double taxation on September 26, 2004. Expropriation and Compensation Since the Foreign Investment Act of 1980 banned nationalization or expropriation without adequate compensation, the GOB has not nationalized or expropriated property from foreign investors. In some instances, parliamentary committees have also reached out to relevant stakeholders for input on draft legislation.

The Civil Law Legal System

Ayres overlooks the cultural hegemony that nationalism imposes on the population that nationalists claim to speak for—as well as the internal resistance that this hegemony may encounter from those it excludes.

Worldwide Guide to Women in Leadership

Pakistani official nationalism, far from being constant and uniform, changed over time and is perhaps better understood as a result of competing discourses in between and within institutions. The Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission BSEC , a statutory body formed in 1993 and attached to the Ministry of Finance, regulates both.
