The AMR Challenge

PharmAccess Group Netherlands SafeCare is an international initiative of PharmAccess Group and constitutes a practical methodology that tracks, acknowledges, and certifies incremental clinical quality improvements in health facilities in resource restricted settings. USP will generate evidence on the link between poor quality medicines which do not meet regulatory requirements for quality and antibiotic resistance.

An Angel Trip is specifically designed for a terminally ill child who is making their final journey home before he or she grows their

Angel Wings. Initially formed to harness the efforts of people in the community, a significant achievement has been demonstrated over the past that has seen investment in their local hospital as a very worthwhile cause to bring much needed services such as a Finometer and Tilt Table, Healing Garden, an End of Life Room, improved Oncology services, and much more. Also, with medical advances, there are better survival rates for premature babies, but this can sometimes be accompanied by deafblindness.
