Renaissance magic and mysticism

Instead, you will read many very fascinating small points about Paracelsus, the Renaissance, medicine and doctors in the 16th century, and alchemy. The author has given us some panoramic views of the time period and the brutal theological wars of the time that effected Paracelsus and his dispersion of his works.

The Devil's Doctor: Paracelsus and the World of Renaissance Magic and Science By: Philip Ball

Star and Ascendant A science of prophesy xx 16. The esteemed doctors and academics of the university, dressed in their rich robes and fur hats, gathered to hear his words of wisdom. Without a systematic methodology, however, he assimilated magical and alchemical thought in his own idiosyncratic way, taking what he fancied and fitting it in to his grand scheme.

The Devil's Doctor: Paracelsus and the... book by Philip Ball

Philip von Hohenheim was better known as Paracelsus and as such his fame has survived. It's a bad fit in any circumstance, but it shows Paracelsus as a 16th century figure famous as a doctor of alchemy medicine, who gained a reputation in his times as both miracle worker and a fake.

The Devil's Doctor: Paracelsus and the World of Renaissance Magic and Science HC

I had read bits and pieces about Paracelsus over the years, but gathered almost nothing about the man.
