Celestial Teachings: The Emergence of the True Testament of Jmmanuel by James W. Deardorff

These lent very little, if any, support to the Hindu concept of transmigration of the soul to other animals, nor does the TJ.

About the investigator

However, common sense instead indicates that if one Gospel writer made heavy use of the Gospel that came before his, and the third made heavy use of the two that came before his, as even the early church fathers testify, this guideline need not be true at all.

Description: Celestial teachings

However from there he apparently assumed without further checking that the same typewriter was involved in both cases.
