Binyon does a good job navigating all the correspondence among Pushkin and those who knew him. The Desire of Glory, which has been dedicated to Elizaveta Vorontsova, was set to music by on , as well as Keep Me, Mine Talisman — by on and later by Tukhmanov. Combining exemplary scholarship with the pace and detail of a great novel, Pushkin elevates biography to a work of art.

Alexander Pushkin

As was the custom, Vasily and Sergey were entered for the army at a very early age: Vasily was seven and Sergey six when their names first appeared in the list.

He also gave it a figure of enduring romantic allure—fiery, restless, extravagant, a prodigal gambler and inveterate seducer of women. Of his seven children by Christine three more died in infancy the eldest son, Ivan, was a distinguished artillery officer who reached the rank of lieutenant-general. Sometimes this is done properly in the context of new material that has been discovered since those other biographies have been discovered.
