What does the Bible say about Christian behavior?

. When a sovereign king gives an edict, it is incontestably binding on all his subjects.

James 2:1 My brothers, as you hold out your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ, do not show favoritism.

NAB James 2:5 Listen, my beloved brothers.

What does James 2:1 mean?

The upshot is that discrimination can actually work adversely both ways - toward the rich and toward the poor! Those who managed to survive were driven out into other parts of the empire but with them they brought the only hope for humanity in Jesus Christ Acts 4:12.

James 2:18 But someone will say, have faith and I have Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds.

That ought not to be. Through practice and observation he may learn that there is work involved in putting food on the table. True believers trust in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Saving Faith in Action: James 2:14

But the law is impersonal and it is actually the Holy Spirit Who uses the transgressed law to convict cf Jn 16:8. Jude 1:5 Now I desire to remind you, though you know all things once for all, that the Lord, after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

What Is The Purpose Of The Book Of James? A Bible Study

One of the trickiest temptations for Christians is to look at our outward circumstances as a sign of God's approval .

James 2:14

Who knows, maybe that was one of the things discussed at the Jerusalem Council. De Haan, was president of Radio Bible Class, a well-known minister came to our office.
