World War II in the Pacific

The crippled Yorktown, along with the destroyer , were both sunk by the Japanese submarine. Because of this, after the surrender in 1945, the stance of the United States was that Thailand should be treated as a puppet of Japan and be considered an occupied nation rather than as an ally.

Matrix Games

From mid-June 1944, Iwo Jima came under American air and naval bombardment, this continued until the days leading up to the invasion.

Matrix Games

The commando corps continued to operate after the coup until liberation. Following this attack, hundreds of the native population committed mass suicide by throwing themselves off the cliffs onto the rocks below near the northern tip of the island.
