India's Muslims: An Increasingly Marginalized Population

In the rest of the subcontinent migrations were not to be on a planned basis, but a matter of individual choice. According to , Muslims in India are much more resistant to modern contraception than are Hindus and, as a consequence, the decline in fertility rate among Hindu women is much higher compared to that of Muslim women.

Politicization of Islam during Partition

Hindus living for generations in what was to become Pakistan had to flee their homes overnight.

The Muslims of India

Similarly, the Punjab counterparts to this transition of violence were the Rawalpindi massacres of March 1947. This resolution can be achieved by regarding discrimination as what it is: a problem of Indian democracy.

'Muslims chose to stay in India after partition' is a myth used to make Hindus feel guilty

The British, however, allowed the majority Hindus to benefit from what they had to offer for the first 100 years of their rule. One cannot argue that radical Islam and the propensity towards Jinnah has only increased over the years.
