How Beatnik Style Made the Underground Mainstream

Here many like-minded people created art, music and literature and collaborated together, including Jackson Pollock, Desolate Angel, Jack Kerouac, the Beat Generation, and America. The evening was held in their Fresh café; a small space that is kitted out as a cabaret bar, and perfect

Burroughs as forerunners of cyberpunk. They worked together with , to develop magazine. At the same time a combination of economic forces and the gradual takeover of record-distribution networks by major labels made running a small label more and more difficult.

Review

The Beats were the actual poets who contributed to the scene but the Beatniks were the culture that adopted the now exciting look of shrouding in a corner of a coffee shop wearing all black. Working in the shadows, these artists invested various artistic media with their creativity, played with their hybridization and invented new art forms. By 1958, many Beat writers published writings on Buddhism.
