. There is nothing you can do that will ever make me love you more, and there is nothing you can do that will ever make me love you less. May be very minimal identifying marks on the inside cover.

Fear of Fifty by Erica Jong, Paperback

With a quotable line on almost every page, Jong's story is more than flash and fire—there's poetry and wisdom, too. We instinctively compare ourselves to those who were in school when we were, who voted in the same elections and perhaps served in the same wars, who remember the same hurricanes and earthquakes, watched the same celebrities and television shows.

10 Essentials About Midlife Love Relationships

Her crime, at least in this case, lies in writing a book that claims to provide insights into female sexuality, feminism and aging—and offering none. Watch as you give someone a compliment.
