Poetry By Award Winning Poet, Cherbo Geepay

The spirit of Africa, the experience lived by the people, the soul of the poetry reveals inner depths for the world to feel and understand. Kona Khasu is a household name and his passion for the arts stretches back to the 1960s and 70s.

The Enduring Legacy of Bai T. Moore

His poetry has since appeared in the Blue Lake Review and the Adelaide Literary Magazine, both based in New York, where he was the finalist of the Adelaide Literary Award for Poetry 2018. She also promised to provide a mini-bus to help ease the mobility challenge while the center is being constructed. It is this same kind of thinking displayed by emerging writers including Geepay: that literature and scholarship can inspire new heights.
