This approach distinguishes itself by combining modalities within a therapy session. While the arts may sometimes be a form of play, encouraging individuals to express themselves through a painting, music, or dance involves an understanding of the media beyond the scope of play. All faculty and staff members have had extensive experiences living, studying and working abroad and have likewise taught in study abroad programs for many years. While CAC is a nonprofit, we try not to rely exclusively on grants or donations; this frees up those funds for community outreach rather than going to our day to day activities. Please check out our current events! All classes are currently in English except French language classes.

Classes — Creative Arts Center of Dallas

It is our goal to introduce Paris, France and French culture in its myriad forms while helping students to gain access to Parisians and the French as opposed to so many study abroad programs where students mostly remain in American or English language ghettos. Ours is the largest community-based visual arts education programs in the city, offering more than 500 classes for teens and adults throughout the year. OR You can make a one-time donation OR set up a recurring monthly amount with your credit card, using our secure PayPal interface: Fine Line Creative Arts Center is a 501 c 3 Not For Profit Organization.
