

Peggy Deery - a Derry family at war

Virago - Peggy Deery (1988 edition)

Description: -

- Northern Ireland -- Social life and customs.
 Deery, Peggy.Peggy Deery - a Derry family at war
 -Peggy Deery - a Derry family at war
 Notes: Originally published: Dublin; Attic, 1988.
 This edition was published in 1989

Filesize: 7.28 MB

Tags: #9780946211555: #Peggy #Deery: #A #Derry #Family #at #War

PUNCH WAR BULLETIN ERNE AND DERRY

He was only 13 years of age the first time he was arrested and sent to Millisle borstal. Book traces the life of her and her family into the '80s, looking at the continuing aftershocks of the British occupation. Because I had a public profile, I was subjected to constant harassment and intimidation by the RUC, British army and UDR on the roads, at my home and at my Church in Fermanagh.

staffpostgraduateseminars15

Republican activists expected harassment from the crown forces. He told them that Bishop Daly was sticking to his earlier decision and was not going to allow the funeral to take place in the Cathedral. AwesomeBooksUSA via United States Softcover, ISBN 9781853810756 Publisher: Virago, 1989 Used - Very Good.

staffpostgraduateseminars15

He too was only a teenager. Republican leaders had assured them there would be no firing of shots in the grounds of the Cathedral. The wives of the two men tried to negotiate with the local clergy and insisted they wanted a funeral Mass.

staffpostgraduateseminars15

I have no idea, to this day, how the story got to the Press. But it was his poem, The Traveller, which won him recognition among his fellow writers and elevated him to the status of a literary celebrity.

Nell McCafferty

This book has clearly been well maintained and looked after thus far.

PUNCH WAR BULLETIN ERNE AND DERRY

And men are as different as women, which no-one holds against them. Then along with the families, they decided to wait to avoid a clash with the RUC. On Sundays she cooked for her family including 26 grandchildren.

Nell McCafferty

Some required hospital treatment for their injuries. In 1942, the first of over 1. Please share the event and come along.

Peggy Deery: a Derry family at war (1853810754) by McCAFFERTY, Nell

Both had spent many hours in RUC custody. Please contact us if you want.

Related Books

- Indian market - a commercial and economic digest for the exporter
- Building Americas hangar - the design and construction of the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center
- Sensō to heiwa
- Shokuhō-kei jōkaku no keisei
- On wages, trades unions and strikes - a lecture delivered to the operatives in Dunedin Hall, Edinbur