Although the Queen has no direct political power and has been punctilious in avoiding any hint of party allegiance , the laws of the land none the less mean she theoretically remains able to exercise the royal prerogative contrary to the advice of her prime minister or the cabinet.

1 . Presentation and History

The rest of the interior is clean and unmarked. The hotch-potch nature of the constitution is shown by the fact that the Sovereign retains all manner of unusual rights secured by her forebears and never claimed back.
