Utah Attorney at Law Stephen Howard

Examination, cross-examination and re-direct examination occur as before, but with the defendant asking the first questions. If you are facing criminal prosecution in Utah, the assistance of an experienced criminal defense attorney can give you the best chance of raising a successful defense.

Attorney at Law Stephen Howard

The plaintiff asks each witness questions about what they know about the case. The parties also prepare a proposed verdict form, which the jurors use to answer specific questions about the case. Failure to file the complaint and summons with the court within that 10-day period will result in the action being deemed dismissed, and the court will have no further jurisdiction thereof.
