Allahumma inni atawassalu ilayka bi-fulan an tujiba da'wati wa taqdia hajati O Allah! If such was the case, the Prophet saws himself would have prohibited people as a precaution from seeking blessing, visiting the graves or kissing the sacred black stone Hajar al-Aswad at the holy Ka'bah. But since He is beyond comprehension there is no other choice but to worship some of His closest servants such as angels, genies and saints so that they make intercession shafa'at and people may reach the proximity of God through them.

Alusi thus believes that there is no objection in making tawassul to God by means of the dignity jah and prime position of the Prophet saws , whether it is in his lifetime or after his death, since dignity here refers to an attribute which is one of the attributes of Almighty Allah. The Shafi'ite scholar Ghazzali has allotted a special section in his book Ihya' 'Ulum al-Din concerning the manners of pilgrimage to the shrine of the Prophet saws in order to repent and seek forgiveness from Allah. For the same reason the surahs are in the reverse order.

But, adds 'Allamah Tabataba'i, in the Holy Qur'an tawassul to the Prophets is in the manner of an intermediary and is not something independent, and for this reason it has not been considered as shirk or polytheism. Therefore, I have come to you for forgiveness of my sins and seeking your intercession with Allah.

The rules of Laam Al

If you call on them they shall hear not your call; and even if they hear they shall answer you not; and on the Day of Judgement they will deny your associating them with Allah ; and none can ever inform you as the All-Aware. They even forbade those who intended to supplicate beside the Prophet's saws tomb.
