The rising tide of communal violence is standing on the myths against the minority community, which are based on a particular interpretation of history. Navigate news, 1 email day.

Temple Desecration and Muslim States in Medieval [1.59 MB]

Tarikh-i-Tabari tells us that raiding parties were sent in all directions to destroy the images of deities held in special veneration by different tribes including the images of al-Manat, al-Lat, and al-Uzza.

'We will never know the number of temples desecrated through India's history': Richard Eaton

Is communal violence leading to desecration of temples?

It is an enclosed space. Bernard, Kerala History , pp. Yet, he fails to offer any data which are incompatible with the latter explanation.

Locals say temple attack triggered attack on mosque during Delhi riots

Scatter their tribe, cause their feet to stagger! Since then, India has witnessed sporadic large-scale violence sparked by underlying tensions between sections of the Hindu and Muslim communities. This much is clear both from normative Sanskrit texts and from the inscriptive record.
