The killing of Archbishop Oscar Romero was one of the most notorious crimes of the cold war. Was the CIA to blame?

How to explain Romero's actions? The citizens rallied even more, and the tragedy at his funeral caused some of the ruling elites and organizations to question their motives and distance themselves from the military Junta. The men received orders from a National Police detective, Oscar Perez Linares, who came to the house. It is likely that in the news coverage in the coming days the secular mainstream media and progressive Catholic outlets will present the Salvadoran martyr as a very different figure from who he really was.

John Paul II, and frequent characterizations of him as such are an insult to the truth and to his great legacy. Rutilio Grande, and that his conversion happened less than a month after he became archbishop. Some rich people were happy because they thought he would stop priests from helping the poor to stand up for their basic rights.

At the death site, Romero learned about the injustices, torture and unfair living conditions of the peasants.

Archbishop Óscar Romero: setting the record straight

The blood pumped from his heart, soaking the little white disks of scattered host. Undaunted by the owners' hostility, Romero regarded the land reform issue as so important that he scheduled a three-day conference on the subject for the priests and laity of the diocese, inviting experts from San Salvador to come and give the talks.

Celebrate the Feast of Saint Oscar Romero

I have seen documentaries on JP II where they interview leftist nuns to get the story about Romero and JP II, they tell a false story. No one would have guessed he would transform from a shy, predictable and determined church leader into a bold advocate for the poor, a loud voice for justice and a moral leader for a nation.
