How AI is changing photography

My photographs from Haiti tend to reflect those states of mind — complicated frames, truncated figures, photographs that tend to raise complicated questions rather than to provide easy answers. His photos were blurry, grainy, and dark in contrast to the images valued during the period. Below, light yellow or blue is most likely the key color.

8 Crucial Innovations in the Invention of Photography

Photo by Elliott Erwitt 9. Atif Saeed aims to affect the viewer in the same way he is affected by his photos and the special moments that he captures. At least RGB, as here: And those images were made 50 years! Photo by Henri Cartier-Bresson Conclusion Street photographers capture the emotions of life.

The Evolution of Photography

Robert Cornelius This image is considered to be the first intentional portrait of a human being made... ever. It was only two people, a man having his boots shined and the shiner, who remained still long enough to be recorded in the photo.
